Allow enthusiasts to express their personality and their pleasure of freedom

Passionate about motorcycle since I was young, my first meeting with the Valkyrie took place in 2003 during the National Kustom Show in Paris.

Gathered in front of large wrought-iron gates, a dozen Honda 1500 F6C with gleaming chrome, each equipped with a majestic 6-cylinder engine, faced me. These extraordinary beauties pleases me immediately because, despite their belonging to the same family, none of them were identical. They were unique.

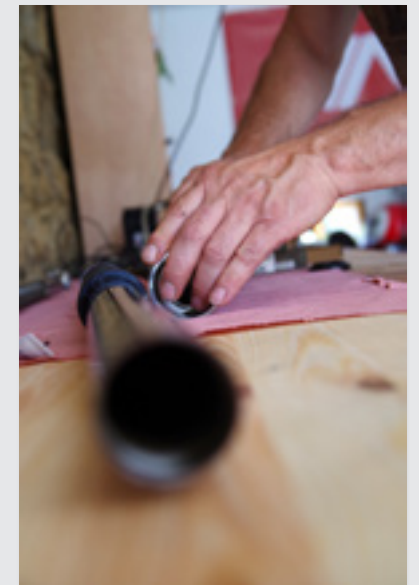

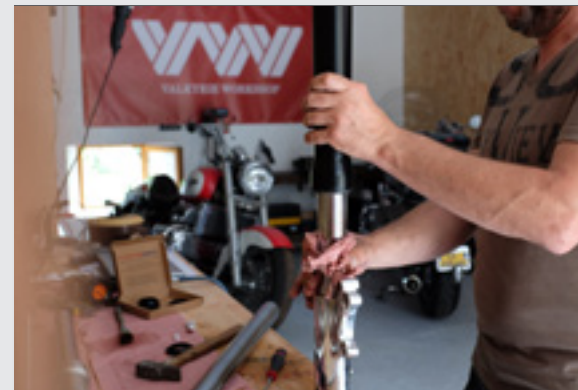

Since then, I have consistently acquire and evolve them to concepts more and more personalized and completed for my own pleasure and those of my friends from the Valkyrie Rider Cruiser Club.

After several critical successes for my achievements and many encouragements, I decided to turn my passion into a profession and to set up the Valkyrie Workshop.

Valkyrie Workshop is dedicated to the design, creation and personalization of Valkyrie and based on challenge, share and enthusiasm, to allow motorcycles lovers to express their personality and their pleasure of freedom.

The Dragon's Breath

The Dragon's Breath is a tribute to the origins of the Valkyrie 1500, which when introduced in 1996, was dubbed "The Dragon" by the American Craig Buhl for her ability to fly over the road, size and power. Wild, she is cut to devour long roads. Spreading her wings with force and her luscious rear end, this creature will make you vibrate to the sounds of its Hot Rod exhausts and its audio system 4 x 40 W.

The Six Shooter is a double tribute. First to the "Six Shooter" designed in 1996 by Cobra, which was one of the very first six-cylinder Valkyrie custom. Then, to the hard rock band Guns N'Roses and their famous six-shot guns as emblem. Rock as glamorous, radical as refined, The Six Shooter never misses her target! Calibrated for the casual ones who impose their own rhythm, this reinvented chopper has to be lived out with style and insolence.
